

Guardian (Legal Representative) Consent Form for the Accommodation of a Minor

Age Policy Summary

- Guests aged 19 or older, the age of majority under the law of the Republic of Korea, may book without any additional consent form.
- Minors aged 16 to 18 may stay without a guardian only if this guardian consent form has been completed and the original is presented at check-in, together with a copy of the guardian's identification document and the minor's own identification document.
- A minor who stays together with their guardian does not need to submit this consent form.

Guests under 16 years of age may not stay without an accompanying guardian, and this consent form does not permit such a stay.

If the original consent form is not presented, or if the information entered is untrue, check-in may be refused, and in that case the existing cancellation fee rules apply.

This consent form applies only when a minor aged 16 to 18 stays at Da-woo House without an accompanying guardian. The guardian (legal representative) must complete and sign this form in person, and the original must be presented at check-in together with a copy of the guardian's identification document and the minor's own identification document.
